Projects

SanitX | Python, FastAPI, PyMuPDF, Gemini API, Next.js, TypeScript, Tailwind CSS — DevJams '26

- Built a document security tool with a team that detects prompt injection hidden inside PDF and Markdown files before they reach an AI system
- Worked on a two-layer pipeline: a rule-based scanner for tiny text, low-contrast text and hidden content, followed by Gemini analysis that decides whether the document is safe
- Contributed across the stack: ideation, FastAPI backend, Next.js frontend, and designing and presenting the system architecture
- Reached Review 3 of the DevJams '26 hackathon, where the field narrowed to 11 teams
